Hello Sailors,

As we reach the end of 2019, I look back on my year as commodore. It was such an amazing experience, I was able to meet new members, participate in many racing and sailing events, and lead our sailing club forward to the next level. Gives me pause as we reach 2020, what should be our New Year’s resolution. Perhaps, plan a trip to a new location, consider being a host for a cruise event next year, perhaps consider racing where before you had not done so. Any activity with your boat will make you a better sailor and give you more opportunities to learn and appreciate the art of sailing. January is just around the corner and with that comes the Nautical Flea market which will be the weekend of January 18 & 19. Please contact Mike Megarity or Jeff Miskin if you have anything to either donate or would like to man the booth. Please don’t forget your membership dues for 2020. You can now pay online or by mail or, lastly, at the January General Meeting.

January 25, 2020 is the make up for the Mary Wells race. February 8-9 will bring the Chili Cook off to Lake Boca. It is a great opportunity to show your chili expertise and to enjoy a weekend with your fellow HISC members. This year’s Change of Command Dinner will be our first event at Galuppi’s restaurant. It should be an amazing event with a DJ and an excellent menu to include filet mignon!! Next year, due to the tear down of the Lighthouse Point Yacht Club facilities, our meeting place will be changing. As of March 2020, all meetings will be held at the Galuppi’s Restaurant.

Wishing all a healthy and prosperous New Year
And as always keep Sailing…

Jeff Sussman
Commodore HISC

The HISC is moving to a new Meeting Venue
Our March General Meeting will be at Galuppi's

1103 North Federal Highway
Pompano Beach, FL 33062

The March General Meeting will be held at our new venue: Galuppi’s Restaurant. There will be a Bar inside the meeting room, and the restaurant will be open during it’s normal hours, so it will be available both before and after the meeting for anyone wanting to dine.

If you do dine at the restaurant, please make sure that they know you are an HISC Club Member—we want to show them how we value their facility. We have found the staff to be very helpful and their food is great. See you there!
Ninety HISC members and guests enjoyed an evening of dining and dancing to kickstart the holiday season. December 7\textsuperscript{th}, 2019 was a night to remember at the Lighthouse Point Yacht Club. Upon entering the venue, Christeen captured everyone looking their best in front of the holiday tree. After a quick photo, it was onto the main ballroom where the band was in full swing.

Cocktail hour started at 6:30, followed by a brief meeting at 7, and then a plated dinner. Tables were adorned with nautically themed centerpieces and guests dined on prime rib, chicken piccata, and broiled salmon. After dinner the band returned to the stage and guests danced the night away until 10:30pm. Everyone loved the music and entertainment provided by High-Tolerance Band. HISC dinner dances are always a great time. Mark your calendars for our next big event, the Change of Command Dinner Dance, on Saturday, February 29 at Galuppi’s in Pompano Beach. Tickets are available on our website.

T’was the night before a nautical Christmas
By Brittany Meyers

T’was the night before Christmas and all through the boat, not a creature was stirring, not even a roach.
The dry bags were hung on the davits with care, in hopes that St. Nicholas soon would be there.

The children were nestled all snug in their berth, while visions of snorkeling filled them with mirth.
And mama in her ponytail and I in my headlamp, had just dropped the 'hook in a new harbor "camp".

When out on the deck there arose such a clatter, I sprang from the nav station to see what was the matter.
To the aft cabin I flew like a flash, grabbed my machete and opened the hatch.

The full moonlight sparkled and danced on the ocean, while our boat gently rocked with a side-to-side motion.
When what to my sun-tired eyes should appear, but a flying pirogue pulled by eight tiny deer.

With a laughing old helmsman singin' a Caribbean shtick, I knew in a moment it must be St. Nick.
More rapid than dolphins, his coursers they came, and he whistled and shouted and called them by name:

"Now Dasher! Now Dancer!
Now Prancer! Now Vixen!
On Comet! On Cupid!
On Donner! On Blitzen!

From the top of the mast all the way to the clew!
Now dash away! Dash away! Dash away you!"
As sea birds before a wild hurricane fly, when met with an obstacle, take to the sky.

Over twinkling anchor lights 'round the harbor they flew with a boat full of parts and St. Nicholas, too.
When suddenly I heard on the cabin-top roof the prancing and pawing of each tiny hoof.

As I clicked off my headlamp and was turning around, down the companionway stairs came St. Nick with a bound!
Hawaiian shirt, bermuda shorts and water nut in hand,
his feet and his face were all covered in sand.

A sack full of provisions he had slung on his hub and he looked like a man just returned from Sam's Club.
His eyes, how they sparkled! His wrinkles, how cheery!
His cheeks were all sunburned, his nose was all peely!

His droll little mouth was drawn up like a sail,
the ends of his beard housed a braid, like a tail.
The stump of his Cuban cast a faint yellow glow, but the Old Salt, he knew better than to smoke down below.

His face was all weathered, and he had a big tum,
from a lifetime of rays and plenty of fun.
He was chubby and plump, a right jolly old Salt and I knew right away this was not an assault.

A wink of his eye and a swig of his rum,
soon gave me to know he was nothing but fun.
He spoke not a word, but got to work down below
And serviced our systems with the speed of a pro!

He cleaned up our terminals and replaced an old hose,
After halving my "to-do" list, up the companionway he rose.
He jumped into his boat, to his team gave a whistle,
and away they all went like a nautical missile.

But I heard him exclaim as he sailed through the night
"Merry Christmas to all, and to all a good night!"

Brittany Meyers grew up in the ‘burbs of Chicago and has been sailing for as long as she can remember and traveling almost as long. She lived in Tanzania, Africa, for a 3-year stint and her travels have taken her as far east as Thailand, and as far South as Cape Horn, usually solo. She is the voice of Windtraveler.net
