Hi HISC Community. The Club continues to sail on with some very favorable winds off our stern quarter. The Spring Series races have been very successful. The new Gunkhole class has brought out new racers. HISC participation in other organization’s events has provided a trove of “silverware” for our members. We dominated the Gulfstream Regatta. And, as ever, our parties large and small have added to the spirit (with spirits) of the “best sailing club ever.”

We continue to make great strides with our home-grown technology. There will be a total revision of our website to be officially launched with the Landlubber’s Party in August. If you want a “peek under the kimono,” so to speak go to: http://www.uatlu.com/. You will need a temporary user ID which you can get by asking Dale Kern for one. You can go to the site without one to see what non-members can view.

HISC must continue to recruit new members at a fast pace, because a club as old as ours needs to replace the founding members. One new aspect of our membership drive is Saturdays at West Marine, Pompano Beach. We had our first one on Saturday, May 5, 2018. In the first three hours we had ten prospective members booked. For a bit of time, these stores can provide a new stream of new members. Of course, the store has a set of repeat customers. After a few Saturdays, we will be talking to the same people. We will be organizing this effort this summer.

People I have met “out in the field” seem very interested in a sailing club that is actually growing membership. To this end we are making every effort to tell our “story.” Josh Mclean is heading up our 2018 publicity efforts. The goal is to get our name into the local media. If anyone knows where we can get “placement” please let Josh know.

The blood drive was very successful. By having it at the Lighthouse Point Yacht Club on a night that we have our general meetings, means a lot more people have the chance to give blood compared to a party at a member’s home. It also solves the parking problem. We will be running a second one during the fall.

Cruising—Do you get the point?
By Judy Keiser—Cruising Committee

Thinking outside the box
By Judy Keiser

When someone says Cruising, do you think of weekend raftups in Lake Boca? We’d like to invite you to think outside the box and consider some other ways to earn cruising points and enjoy boating in South Florida. After all, the week has seven days, not just two… and we live in a boating paradise.

In talking with HISC members, the Cruising Committee has heard some wonderful ideas for cruising events that aren’t part of the limited number (about 12) of Club-sponsored cruising events, or in Lake Boca. Not that there’s anything wrong with Lake Boca or our wonderful weekend cruising events. But there are 365 days and many different destinations available to enjoy the water - it’s a pity to waste all those opportunities.

Here are some out-of-the-box ideas for other types of cruising events. See if some of these float your boat. If so, go ahead and ask others to join you in any outings you would enjoy doing. With the ease of communicating through email blasts, Facebook and our website, the possibilities are endless:

- How about an overnight cruise during the week? Those who work on weekends or from home, or are retired, shouldn’t have to miss all the fun. All you have to do is send a blast email asking that others in that situation contact you. Then set up an email conversation or a meeting to toss around ideas for midweek cruises, and voila – you’ve got a plan. Buddy cruises are eligible for cruising points, remember – so call a buddy who’s available between Monday and Friday, and rack up the points and the great memories.

- How about a cruise where the fun is going somewhere together? Sailboats are made for cruising along the coast with the wind filling their sails. Maybe the convoy can arrange to meet outside of the Hillsboro Inlet, do a leisurely coastal sail till lunchtime, then find some mooring buoys along the reef and settle in for a leisurely afternoon of snorkeling, visiting boat to boat, and napping away the afternoon... and then do a leisurely sail back to the inlet. Sound good? It will not earn cruising points (unless you stay overnight together), but it will generate great memories.

- How about co-hosting a Club cruising event and doing something a little different? The Cruising Committee has a list of cruising destinations that’s three pages long, based on past cruising ideas, including some that haven’t been done in a while. Maybe it’s time to resurrect some of the old cruise ideas. We have décor and props, too: anyone want to organize a hermit crab race? We have a racetrack! Casino Night? We’ve got the roulette wheel and the green felt cloth. If you’d like to co-host a cruising event but need inspiration, just ask for the list. It’s a safe bet something on it will make your eyes light up.

These are just a few cruising possibilities. We’d love to hear your own out-of-the-box ideas – and look forward to seeing you on the water!
Racing
Barabara Wallace - Race Chair

Race season is well underway. We have two races left in the Spring Series 9&10 on June 3, 2018. The first of our Coastal Races begins on June 8th with a pre-race party at Eduardo and Virginia Rabadan’s clubhouse situated on Lake Boca. The race to WPB begins the next morning, June 9th at 10am and culminates in WPB at the PBSC with a much anticipated after race party! Attendance is up over last year and all we need is the cooperation of the wind gods! The Bill Nederlanden Race is June 16th. It’s a race to Ft. Lauderdale and a fabulous after race party hosted by the social committee at The Captains Quarters at The Bahia Mar Marina. Everyone is invited to partake in these events whether they sail or not!

The Hospice Regatta is a great pursuit race with an event filled party afterwards on May 19, 2018. We are hoping for a big HISC turnout and of course, great weather!

Vacation season is almost upon us and a number of boats will be going to the Regatta in The Abacos. We wish them fair winds and following seas ahead. Where will your destination be?

We saw completion of the Miami to Key Largo Race, with several HISC boats competing and some winning. Among the winners were Imagine, Sempre Amantes, The Rabbit and Third Tri. Hailed as , “the largest race start of the year.” A meeting of old friends and former competitors, and one, very long race!

A big thank you to all who make our races possible from The Beach Committee, Race Results team, Mark setters, Buoy Team Captains, After Race party committees and hosts/hostesses, and of course, to all of you, who make the effort to come out and do the races!

See you on the line, and remember, give the buoy’s a bit of room, it’s faster that way!
